SUPPLEMENTAL APPENDIX OF LAW

The following statutes of the State of Tennessee are relied upon by Petitioner and are specifically quoted from Tennessee Code Annotated as follows:

"53-1306. Practice in healing arts or medicine by partnership, person, association, or corporation unauthorized.—Nothing in this chapter shall authorize any person, partnership, association, corporation, or any state, county, or local governmental unit, or any division, department, board or agency thereof, to engage, in any manner, in the practice of the healing arts, or the practice of medicine, as defined by law. [Acts 1947, ch. 13, §7; C. Supp. 1950, §5879.6 (Williams, §4432.7).]"

"63-202. 'Healing arts' defined.—For the purpose of this chapter, any license authorizing the licensee to offer or undertake to diagnose, treat, operate on, or prescribe for any human pain, injury, disease, deformity, or physical or mental condition is a license to practice the healing art. [Acts 1943, ch. 92, §2; C. Supp. 1950, §6917.3 (Williams, §6917.2).]"

"63-203. Certificate of ability required for examination in healing arts.—No person shall be eligible for examination or permitted to take an examination for a license to practice the healing arts or any branch thereof, or be granted any such license, unless he has presented to the licensing board, or officer empowered to issue such a license, a certificate of ability in anatomy, physiology, chemistry, bacteriology, and pathology (hereinafter referred to as the basic sciences), issued by the state board of examiners in the basic sciences. [Acts 1943, ch. 92, §1; C. Supp. 1950, §6917.2 (Williams, §6917.1).]"

"63-216. Violations and unauthorized practice.—Any person who shall practice the healing arts or any branch thereof without having obtained a valid basic science certificate from the board, except as otherwise authorized in this chapter, or who shall obtain or attempt to obtain a basic science certificate by any dishonest or fraudulent means, or who shall forge, counterfeit, or fraudulently alter any such certificate, or who shall obtain or attempt to obtain a license to practice the healing arts or any branch thereof from any board authorized to issue any such license without presenting to said licensing board a valid certificate issued by the board of examiners in the basic sciences as in this chapter required, or who knowingly issues or is a party to the issuance of a license to practice the healing arts or any branch thereof to any person not presenting a valid certificate or shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished in accordance with the law. And each day that any person shall practice the healing arts or any branch thereof without first obtaining a valid certificate shall constitute a separate offense. [Acts 1943, ch. 92, §17; C. Supp. 1950, §6917.17.]"

"63-605. License required to practice.—No person shall practice medicine in any of its departments within this state unless and until such person shall have obtained a certificate of fitness from the state board of medical examiners, created by §63-601, and shall have obtained a license and a certificate of registration from the state licensing board for the healing arts as provided in chapter 1 of this title; provided, however, that the provisions in this chapter with reference to obtaining a certificate of fitness from the state board of medical examiners shall not apply to any person who on July 1st, 1947, was duly and regularly licensed by law to practice medicine in any of its branches in this state. [Acts 1901, ch. 78, §1; 1905, ch. 111, §1; Shan., §3609a13; Code 1932, §6918; impl. am. Acts 1947, ch. 9, §§2-4, 9; mod. C. Supp. 1950, §6918.]"

"63-608. 'Practice of medicine' defined.—Any person shall be regarded as practicing medicine within the meaning of this chapter who shall treat, or profess to treat, operate on, or prescribe for any physical ailment or any physical injury to or deformity of another provided; that nothing in this section shall be construed to apply to the administration of domestic or family remedies in cases of emergency, or to the laws regulating the practice of dentistry; and this chapter shall not apply to surgeons of the United States army, navy, air force, or marine hospital service, or to any registered physician or surgeon of other states when called in consultation by a registered physician of this state, or to midwives, or to veterinary surgeons, or to osteopaths, or chiropractors not giving or using medicine in their practice, or to opticians, optometrists, chiropodists or to Christian Scientists. [Acts 1901, ch. 78, §19; Shan. §3609a33; mod. Code 1932, §6937; Acts 1945, ch. 181, §10; impl. am. Acts 1947, ch. 2, §§1, 2; C. Supp. 1950, §6937; modified.]"
